Does my child have to attend Faith Zone every day?

There are no minimum attendance requirements; however, advance notice is helpful for planning.

How will my child get to Faith Zone each day?

The Faith Zone staff will pick up each child from his or her classroom at the end of the school day.

What will my child do during the time after school?

Children will have free play, homework time, snack time, outside play, and alternating activities (i.e., crafts, games, service projects, etc.).

What kinds of snacks are served?

Students are asked to eat leftovers and/or remaining snacks from their lunchbox first. Provided snacks are typically Goldfish, granola bars, crackers, or pretzels, with sugary snacks being avoided. If your child would like an additional snack to eat after homework time, please send one in. If your child has any dietary restrictions or plays a Middle School sport, notify Mrs. Carpenter and provide a snack for your child(ren).

How do I register?

Go to your FACTS Parent Portal and fill out the 26-27 After School Care-Faith Zone & Study Tables Form.

How do I communicate my child(ren)'s need for Faith Zone?

Email Michelle Carpenter (mcarpenter@fcsva.com), your child(ren)'s teacher(s), AND Mrs. Smith (gsmith@fcsva.com). If you do not receive a reply within 30 minutes, please call the school, and your call will be directed to the appropriate person.
